- The Playground Partnership Program is a collaboration between the City of Bloomington, Bloomington Public Schools and Oak Grove Presbyterian and Normandale Hylands UMC churches. The partnership provides summer programming during weeks when no other City or School programs are available. The Playground Partnership Program is located at Smith Park and Westwood Park and will be in operation the weeks of July 6-9, August 23-27 and August 30 - September 3. This program is free and lunch will be provided by the District. Activities include games, sports, and arts and crafts. Registration is required. Registration information is available at the City of Bloomington Park and Recreation Programs.
